

Why Australian Pacific Touring?

Rob, Geoff and Lou McGeary

Australian Pacific Touring has been a family-owned company since it's foundation over 80 years ago. APT is now in it's third generation of McGearys and continues to set the benchmark in delivering memorable and life-enriching holiday experiences our valued travellers have come to expect. Over the last 80 years, APT has developed and grown to become Australia's leading tour operator and your group departures will benefit from this extensive knowledge and experience. APT want to share its passion for travel by developing holiday experiences that are second to none, and with a premium product range, this is always achieved. So join us, and help share the magic of travel with your clients.

What style of group travel is right for you?

At Australian Pacific Touring we are justifiably proud of our unrivalled reputation for outstanding tours to many of the world's most popular destinations. Whether your clients want to do their own unique trip, or have the opportunity to travel together on one of our existing group tours, we can tailor a tour to suit your needs.

We boast an experienced and dedicated groups department that has the knowledge, passion and skill to provide your group with all the necessary elements to create a trip of a life-time. Our friendly staff are on call and available to assist you, whatever your need may be.

We have a number of touring options available, from short breaks to extended touring. Our reach is global, so your groups can go to the top destinations around the world with that special stamp that says they are travelling with Australia's leading tour company.

As the flagship company of the APT Group, Australian Pacific Touring boasts the most comprehensive range of premium touring products for Australia and New Zealand. Whether by road, rail, air or sea, the discerning travellers who choose APT do so for the unparalleled style and comfort.

For over 30 years APT World Discoveries have made global destinations easily accessible to travellers. The investment in four state-of-the-art river ships in Europe and the purchase of a GoldLeaf dome carriage on Canada's famous Rocky Mountaineer train best demonstrate APT World Discoveries absolute commitment to global travel.

As a wholly-owned member of the APT Group, Travelmarvel specialise in first-class tours for a value for money price. With a wide selection of holidays throughout Australia, New Zealand and North America, Travelmarvel makes travelling about the provision of choice, value, adventure and fun.

Newman's Escorted Tours have been providing quality touring in New Zealand to travellers from all around the world for over 125 years. In 1996, the APT Group took over Newman's Escorted Tours and in doing so, have maintained the unparalleled levels of service and broad range of experiences that travellers have come to expect.

In partnership with the Wunan Foundation, Kimberley Wilderness Adventures (KWA) specialise in small group 4WD tours of the Kimberley. Limited numbers ensure a close interaction with the land and most importantly, KWA functions with the utmost respect to the environment.

This new range of touring has been designed to offer a more intimate connection to some of the untouched and remote places across Australia. Travel is in small groups of 16-24 and in a custom-built 4WD, providing all passengers access through the toughest terrain and to remarkable places.

Botanica World Discoveries are designed for the gardening and gourmet enthusiasts who love to travel to stately homes and manicured gardens. These worldwide tours also include visits to National Parks, Flower and Garden Shows, as well as iconic sightseeing attractions around the world.
